Boccia on Thursday night at KH 8pm

Well, another year over, almost! Its been the usual mix of old and new ventures but it seems that we still manage to put something together that pleases most folk.

The dance night at St. Georges was a mixed bag, mainly due to poor communications between us and the members who turned out. These 'do's' don't usually kick off till 9pm and that was not made clear. Anyway, it may be that we can have another and see how it goes. It is handy for the group to not have the planning and expense to run our own evenings.

The weekend to Grassington and Skipton markets went well. The Cumbria 'Grande' remains good value and coaching with Timewells worked great. The weather was bad on Saturday but Skipton was sunny and dry with a very entertaining day around town.

Phils 70th birthday party at St. Georges went fairly well. With a good turnout and some great music from the 'travelling folk' and Scrummies hot pot we managed to raise £670 for Macmillan Nurses. This was a last minute change of charity but we are planning another do in aid of Marina Dalgleish

The Christmas Party was poorly attended, with only 37 turning but stand in singer PJ Laine kept us well entertained with his mix of songs and jokes. Well done Phil

The 2019 AGM will be held at KH on Jan15th

A 4 night break at Warners - Boddelwyddan is now booked for February 18th. Coached with Timewells including 2 days out and 4 nights DBB will cost £220 per person. 26 are signed up.
